OK

A hand-drawn sketch of a person with a large, round, segmented body, possibly a robot or a stylized figure, with the word 'OK' written above it. The drawing is done in a simple, expressive line-art style. The figure has a large, round head with a small, pointed nose and a wide, open mouth. The body is composed of several large, rounded segments connected by thin lines. The figure is standing on two legs, and its arms are outstretched. The word 'OK' is written in a simple, hand-drawn font above the figure's head. The background is plain white.

ON HIS WAY HOME FROM THE
JINGLE MILL
KASPER NOTICED THAT THE WORLD

AND HIS TEETH
STARTED TO JINGLE

AND A TOOTH JINGLE

IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD
NOTED DOWN WHAT
